

Dear Prospective Client,

Taxes are like a jigsaw puzzle. The laws are complex. The pieces all fit together to make a unique picture for each individual taxpayer. Unfortunately there is no box top that shows you what your picture should look like. I have all the knowledge and resources help you put the pieces together and simplify the process. As a mother of four I know how important it is to get the most out of every dollar, which is why I am committed to interpreting the tax laws to get you the lowest tax liability the law allows!

After 7 years working for a well-known tax preparation company, I decided it was time to leave the big corporation and start my own firm. Running my own business has allowed me to develop more personal and meaningful relationships with my clients without the confines of corporate red-tape. Working with me means you get more than just tax preparation. I am available to you all year long, not only during "tax season". With other big companies you will get whoever is available if you need help during the "off-season". With Crystal Clear Tax Solutions, if you need anything you can contact me anytime. I also take the time to get to know you and give you advice so that you can make the most informed choices when it comes to your taxes.

I have experience in a wide variety of tax returns from rental income and small businesses to capital gains & losses to clergy returns. In addition to tax preparation I offer bookkeeping solutions and can assist with setting up your business' new accounting system. I am an Enrolled Agent; I provide audit support and representation. You will get more than you may expect when you hire me.

The first time we work together it will take a little while longer than future visits. This is because it is important that I find out the small details that can make a big difference. Those things come out through conversation and that one reason I am so passionate about building a relationship with each and every client.

The mission of Crystal Clear Tax Solutions is to build relationships with our clients by providing clear tax advice and accurate preparation services. We are a Christ centered local business with a desire to help people attain the lowest possible tax liability and a healthy financial state.

I look forward to the opportunity to HELP YOU PUT THE PIECES TOGETHER!

God Bless You,

Crystal D. Leibham, EA, LTC
